SECTION VIII. Chapter 15.37 of the Bloomington Municipal Code entitled, Residential Neighborhood Permit Parking, shall be amended to add the following section:

15.37.180 All Zone Permits Upon approval of application, the Director of Parking Enforcement may issue an "All Zone" residential permit to landlords, property managers and qualified service companies, which will allow vehicles bearing this permit to park in any of the residential zones while employees are performing work in that zone.

a) Eligibility. Landlords and property managers registered with the City will be allowed to purchase one sticker for every ten units of property within the residential zones. Landlords and property managers with fewer than twenty units will be allowed a maximum of two permits. Realty companies who show property in the residential zones will be allowed a maximum of one All Zone permit per ten realtors employed by the company. Properly registered and verified service companies will be allowed a maximum of two permits per company.

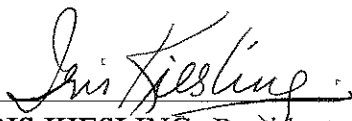

b) Fees. The cost of an All Zone permit shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per year.

SECTION IX. The Director of Public Works and the Traffic Commission are directed to report back to the Common Council by June 1, 1995 with recommended changes to this ordinance. These recommendations should address the concerns of the employees of downtown commercial, retail, and governmental employers who park but do not work in Zone 4. These recommendations should also address the concerns of residents of Sigma Chi fraternity, Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and Collins Living Learning Center.

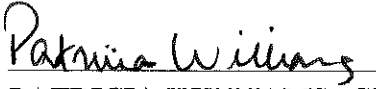

SECTION X. Section IX of this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Common Council and approval by the Mayor. Section VIII shall be in full force and effect on April 1, 1995. All other sections of this ordinance shall be in full force and effect on August 15, 1995.

SECTION XI. Severability. If any section, sentence, or provision of this ordinance, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any of the other sections, sentences, provisions, or applications of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable.

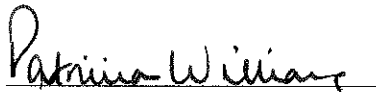

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Common Council of the City of Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, upon this 1st day of February, 1995.

SYNOPSIS

This ordinance expands the University Proximate Residential Neighborhood Permit Parking Program to a fourth zone in the Old Northeast Downtown Neighborhood, provides for additional 2-hour limited parking zones near the Monroe County Library and makes slight modifications to the boundaries of Zones 1 (Elm Heights) and 2 (Eastside) of the Permit Program. These new parking restrictions would be effective on August 15, 1995. The ordinance also creates an "All Zone" residential permit for landlords, property managers and qualified service companies effective April 1, 1995. Lastly, the ordinance directs the Traffic Commission and the Director of Public Works to report back to the Council by June 1, 1995 on a variety of matters surrounding creation of Zone 4.
